

SPACE Writing Toolkit – Key Stage 1 – Writing Prompts

Writing Prompts:

My Rocket Adventure: Imagine you have your own rocket. Where would you fly to, and what would you see?

The Friendly Alien: One day, an alien lands in your garden. What does the alien look like, and what do you do together?

A Trip to the Moon: You've been chosen to visit the Moon! What is it like, and what do you find there?

The Space Picnic: You are having a picnic with your friends on a faraway planet. What food do you bring, and who do you meet?

My New Alien Friend: An alien comes to stay at your house for the weekend. What fun things do you do together?

Riding a Comet: You jump on the back of a comet and zoom through space. Where do you go, and what adventures do you have?

SPACE Writing Toolkit – Key Stage 1 – Sentence Starters

Here's a bank of sentence starters that can be used as prompts or to help you get started with your writing based on the provided writing prompts:

Sentence starters to help you get going...

I climbed into my rocket and counted down...

The alien in my garden smiled and said...

When I stepped onto the Moon, I saw...

I looked up at the night sky and saw a star shining brightly...

My spaceship was ready, and it looked like...

We sat down for our space picnic, and suddenly...

As I floated among the stars, I could see...

The planet started talking, and it said...

My alien friend and I decided to...

Riding on the comet, I felt the wind as we flew past...